BUILDING ACCESS:

Your event time may require the staff to issue you a key. A key drop box is located outside the Holmes Center office. Keys not returned within one week after your event will incur a fine for rekeying the Holmes Center. Issued keys only work on the exterior auditorium doors, lobby auditorium doors and the kitchen.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE:

Access to the room is only available during your scheduled reservation. Early arrivals please wait in the lobby until your event's scheduled time and opening of the room. Please include in your reservation adequate time to set-up and clean-up your event. Your event must vacate the room at the end of your scheduled reservation time.

BUILDING & EVENT HOURS:

The Hal Holmes Community Center operates Monday through Saturday 7 a.m. – 11 p.m. All occupants in the building must vacate at closing time. Events occasionally may be booked on Sundays with approval and staff availability. City staff, including the Ellensburg Police Department, may access any part of the Holmes Center at any time during events.

Event Equipment and Support:

Please reserve all necessary audio, visual, lighting, presentation stand, conference phone or furnishing needs in your original reservation. While we try to accommodate any necessary changes the equipment may not be available and in use by another rental party. All coffee service requests must be made 10 days prior to your event. We only supply HDMI and VGA projector inputs, if your computer/tablets needs an adaptor you will need to supply your own for your computer.

SCHEDULING CONFLICT POLICY:

While every attempt is made to insure the room you have rented is the room you will receive, Hal Holmes reserves the right to switch rooms based on situational need.

CANCELLATION AND RESCHEDULING:

Rented days, hours, rooms, goods and services may only be canceled 10 business days or more before an event. Events that cannot be canceled may be rescheduled to the next available date, or to any date within 10 business days of the original.
