Who We Are:

Since 1984, the Friends of the Ellensburg Public Library and Hal Holmes Center have served the Ellensburg community. The mission of the Friends is to supplement library materials, programs, professional development and special needs not covered by the library's regular budget.

What We Do:

Book Barn

The Friends hold a bi-monthly book sale in the basement of Hal Holmes Center and a semi-annual sale every May and October. Donations for the sale may be brought to the library at the Circulation desk.

What We Fund:

- * Summer reading programs
- * Staff development
- * Annual Book Club tea
- * Facility improvements
- * Books and book club sets

How You Can Help:

Join: Become a member of the Friends by making a donation.

Give: Special gifts, memorials, and bequests of any amount are appreciated. An investment in your library is an investment in your community.

Volunteer: Help with book sales. Offer your time and talents for event activities or special projects.
